Course Description: Examination of the relationship of cultural values to the formation of the child’s self-concept and learning styles. Examination of the role of prejudice, stereotyping, and cultural incompatibilities in education. Emphasis on preparing future teachers to offer an equal educational opportunity to children of all cultural groups.

Instructional objectives: The learner will be able to:

- explain how changing demographics influence public schools
- define the concept of multicultural education and it’s importance in public schools
- identify cultural influences on modes of communication, perception, and world view
- compare concepts of individual and institutional racism, prejudice, ethnocentrism, stereotypes, equity, and equality
- describe how the concepts of equity and equal educational opportunity have evolved into educational policy
- identify legal precedents for educational equity and equal educational opportunities
- define and compare teaching and different learning styles
- relate fictional literature for children to real educational situations
- Challenge ethnocentrism, monolingualism and monoethnicity in school life situations
Requirements and Evaluation:

A. Class Requirements: Students will (1) attend all class sessions, arrive promptly, sign roster and (2) submit all work completely and on time, (3) participate orally in every class meeting/and or as directed and help maintain a positive classroom climate.
