

Message from the President

Dear Students and Prospective Students:

Welcome to Glendale Community College! If you're a new student, you've made a great choice. And if you're returning, we're delighted to serve you again.

Glendale Community College exists to serve the diverse, changing educational needs of our community—and to help you reach your goals, whatever they may be. We offer a range of pathways for people in all walks of life: for recent high school graduates just beginning their college experience, for those wishing to transfer to a university, others wanting to change or enhance their careers, and of course, for students who want to pursue their interests through life-long learning. Since 1965, GCC has proudly opened doors to all of these pathways. More than 306,000 of our alumni around the world can testify to how GCC has changed their lives for the better.

As you pursue your goals with us, I hope you will use this catalog as a helpful tool to make your time at GCC pleasant and productive. There are many services available to you, as well as hundreds of faculty and staff who want to help you find success in our friendly, supportive college environment.

Thank you for choosing Glendale Community College.
Best wishes to you for reaching all of your educational goals.

Sincerely,

Phil Randolph, Ed.D.
President

